

October 2025 Staff Updates

The Division of Finance and Treasury at Montclair State University is excited to share some staffing updates and extend a warm welcome to our newest team members.

General Accounting

Omar Trimino, Senior Accountant

Omar Trimino has joined the team as a Senior Accountant. He brings extensive experience from several higher education institutions, including Stevens Institute of Technology, Ramapo College, and the New Jersey Institute of Technology (NJIT), as well as from corporate and nonprofit organizations.

Omar’s expertise includes financial statement preparation, account reconciliation, debt accounting, fixed assets management, and capital project accounting. He is highly skilled in both financial accounting and financial analysis.

Grants Accounting

Kin Carines Kent, Grants Accountant

Kin Carines Kent has joined the team as a Grants Accountant. She is an accomplished Finance Analyst with extensive experience in financial reporting across corporate, banking, and higher education sectors.

She has a proven track record in the financial administration of grants and contracts, ensuring full compliance with Federal, private, University, and sponsor policies. Kin is highly skilled in managing and coordinating daily financial accounting and reporting processes. In addition, she has specialized training in Anti-Money Laundering (AML) and expertise in identifying and preventing financial fraud.

Wissam Morgan, Grants Accountant

Wissam Morgan has joined the team as a Grants Accountant. He comes to Montclair State University from the International Rescue Committee, where he worked as a Budget & Operations Manager.

Wissam brings extensive skills in financial reporting, budget management, and process optimization. Skilled in administering a large portfolio of both government and private grant funds, his expertise includes allocating staff salaries, tracking project expenses, and assisting in the review and drafting of proposal budgets.

Procurement Services

Lisette Bobet, Interim Associate Director of Procurement Operations

Lisette Bobet has been appointed Interim Associate Director of Procurement Operations. In this role, she will provide managerial and administrative leadership for many day-to-day operations, including requisitions, contracts, waivers of advertising, and p-card processes. She will also continue to oversee the Supplier Create Team.

Lisette has been a valued member of Procurement Services since 2017. Most recently, she served as the Supplier Create & Compliance Manager, a role she has held since 2022.

Jessica Moore, Strategic Sourcing Specialist

Jessica Moore joined the team earlier this month as a Strategic Sourcing Specialist. She will support our strategic sourcing initiatives by overseeing formal solicitations through a collaborative process and conducting spend analytics. Jessica brings valuable experience from her previous role at Dartmouth College.

Student Accounts

Danisha Goodman, Associate Director of Student Accounts

Danisha Goodman has been appointed Associate Director of Student Accounts. Danisha is a seasoned higher education finance professional with over 15 years of progressive experience at Montclair State University. In her previous role as Student Accounts Supervisor, she oversaw a diverse portfolio of Student Accounts operations, including third-party billing, student refunds, tuition appeals, payment plans, and health insurance.

Danisha has played a key role in process improvement and systems implementations, and is currently serving as a lead contributor to the Workday Student implementation. Her deep knowledge of student billing, federal and institutional compliance, and data reconciliation reflects her commitment to financial transparency and student success.

Rayna Brown, Student Accounts Associate

Rayna Brown has joined Montclair State University as a Student Accounts Associate for refunds and waivers. Rayna has ten years of experience in higher education with a proven record of advancing student success, developing innovative programs, and driving operational excellence.

Most recently, she served as Program Coordinator at Vanderbilt University, where she played a pivotal role on the executive team and helped achieve a 50% growth in student enrollment during the 2023–2024 academic year.
